

Scientific Instrument Commission
Organized Visits to Budapest Collections
29 July 2009

8:30 - 9:30

Local transportation to Electrotechnical Museum

VII. Kazinczy utca 21

Tel: +36 01 342 5750

www.emuzeum.hu

By bus: Take bus line 7 or 173 from the University

5-6 minutes on foot to museum

By metro: M2 Astoria is closest stop

*Those who want to travel together may meet Sara and Paolo in front of the Gellert Hotel at 8:30.
The address is Szent Gellért tér 1.*

9:30 - 11:00

Electrotechnical Museum / Magyar Elektrotechnikai Múzeum

The Electrotechnical Museum of the Hungarian Museum for Science, Technology and Transport was established in 1982. It houses materials and exhibits related to Hungarian contributions to the electric power industry. Electric trains, lighting technologies, and transformer production are on display along with various consumer technologies and a host of other original artifacts.

Welcome by Dr. Kiss.

11:00 - 11:30

Tram to Hungarian Museum for Science, Technology and Transport

XIV Városligeti körút 11

Tel: +36 01 273-3840

www.km.iif.hu

6-7 minutes: walk from Electrotechnical Museum to tram line 4

10-12 minutes: ride tram 4

7-8 minutes: walk to Museum for Science, Technology, and Transport

11:30 - 13:00

Hungarian Museum for Science, Technology, and Transport / Közlekedési Múzeum

The collections include instruments of mathematics, physics, chemistry, astronomy, optics, and geodesy.

Welcome by Jeszenszky Sándor

13:00

Return to the University by bus or tram (3 stops).